I seem to always have this Cinnamon Kiss Lip Plumper by Éminence Organic Skin Care in my purse these days. Not only is it a perfect gloss alone or over lip color, it has the uncanny ability to keep my mind off sweet treats. $26 at Bloom Organics.

Made entirely by hand of Limoges porcelain in ebony croc with 24K gold plated trim, this three-inch L'Objet collection box is the perfect place to tuck away rings, earrings and delicate little things at the end of a day. ENVIE, $50.

Spotted: Kinetic sculptor Steve Strenk in these very hip Paolo Seminara glasses at the SaRtQ print party. They're from IOPTICS and offer further proof that just one statement accessory can make a look.
